Ize's Deli and Bagelry serves a full breakfast and lunch every day, 365 days a year, with over 100 items to choose from. Everything is prepared fresh daily, says owner Lee Greenberg, and custom made to please. Lee and his wife Angie run the family business, together with Angie's father, Ted and mother, Marlene.

Bagels are prepared the Old World way, kettle-broiled, then baked on redwood and burlap in a hearth stone oven-crisp on the outside, soft and airy inside. Cream cheeses are house made, combined with fresh garden vegetables and Atlantic salmon, for instance. Breakfast also features danishes, pastries, muffins, custom-made omelets, croissants, fresh fruit and more. Fish choices include Nova lox, whitefish filet and whitefish salad, kippered salmon, sable and tuna salad.

Lunches feature overstuffed deli sandwiches on your choice of bread, from fresh-baked wraps to croissants and whole grains. Stuff them with turkey, roasted beef, ham, corned beef, pastrami, salami, or Ize's famous grilled chicken salad, tuna salad and egg salad. There are also several salads, smoothies and scrumptious desserts.

The Greenbergs have a strong background in catering, and can handle any corporate or social gathering with ease, with platters and party subs to entire menus and service. The restaurant faces Rockville Pike in front of the new Marriott Hotel and Convention Center between Old Georgetown Road and Marinelli Road.
